WELCOME

I was recently pondering the words of a pastor who has been in ministry for 35 years. There was something he said which struck me between the eyes and I'd like to share it with you. He said that one of the most important, non-negotiable values that has sustained him for so long in serving Jesus was that he has maintained his hunger for God.

There is nothing complicated about that statement but I believe it is incredibly profound. Many people are hungry for all manner of created things – but not hungry for the creator. Many people are hungry for their own interests – but are not hungry for God. Many people are hungry for trivial things and their escapes from reality – but are not hungry for what truly matters, Jesus Christ.

Church, do you want to be hungry for God? I pray you do. A hungry person forgets about themselves and is single minded in his or her devotion to their appetite. A person hungry for Jesus is a fearsome weapon in God's hands.

Let's go after God and pray he'll rekindle a deep hunger for Him, that we might see our lives, our church and our community transformed.

Love you all,

PS BRUCE, RUTH & JUDAH
