WELCOME

The new year is a great season because in a lot of ways it is a chance to start again. And if we're honest with our lives we'd probably admit there are plenty of things we'd like to redo, try again or start all over again.

The beginning of new year brings that possibility, but more importantly, Jesus gives us that opportunity each and every day. It's called grace – unmerited favour – and it is why we can enter a new year and a new season with more than just blind hope; we can head into 2007 with a renewed God-given purpose and assurance of our future in Him.

Nothing is more important in life than your connection to Jesus. And this is what we will be addressing straight up in January. God's desire for you and me is to continually grow in our faith and it's my prayer for you that happens in 2007 in a big way. Our January series Risking It All will encourage and challenge you to live this year with a larger, more emboldened faith than ever before. You don't want to miss it.

Praying your 2007 will exceed your wildest expectations!

Love you all,

PS BRUCE, RUTH, JUDAH & GEORGIE
